OPEN TO STUDENTS

When asked what his main job was, Mr. Michael Bonahoom jokingly said "nothing." But almost in the same breath, he said, "Everything is my responsibility." Coping with the second year meant a senior class, honor cards, I.D. cards, released time and early graduation. Knowing how to do things better from mistakes made last year made this year progress more smoothly.

"Now that I have more time, I can become a liaison (bond) between students and faculty," said Mr. Ed Zapp, assistant principal. Mr. Zapp, fitting right in with Harding's motto, "we like kids," did everything from administrative paper work to organizing the bookstore.

Mr. Keith Greathouse's duties as the new vice-principal were 90% discipline and attendance. "My responsibilities are not the most glamorous. They do not enhance relations with students and teachers all the time. But somebody has to do it."

Reading

In past years, all freshman were required to do blue, yellow and sometimes white unipacs. This year, the colors were all combined.

Freshman English, by including poetry, fiction, non-fiction and grammar, allowed students to branch off in their experiences.

Freshmen met every other day in small groups and once a week in large groups. Large groups were used for films, and speakers.

The reading program centered around the machines used. The seven week course, was designed to increase speed and comprehension by the use of the tacho-matic (increased reading speed and reading in phrases); t-matic (increased readers span of perception); shadowscope, (increased speed and prevented the reading of the same lines.)

Mrs. Jan Austin said that the average reading speed for freshmen was about 230 words per minute. "This can be raised by doing regular class activities that the program offered," said Mrs. Austin.

The finer side

The finest of the Fine Arts at PHHS can be found in B124, The Little Theatre. In reality, it is a little theatre. Daily students walk up those two steps with wobbly knees, sweaty hands, and no breath. When he reached the floor, higher than the audience, all of a sudden, he is the player. Whether he is participating in an acting experiment or giving a speech, he is performing in the "Little Theatre."

For the first time at PHHS, an advanced class in speech was offered. Ten students met four days a week and quickly became a family.

Poetry And Creative Writing

Jack and Jill

Jack & Jill,
went up the hill,
to fetch a pail of water.
But they met a man,
along the way, who said they hadn't ought.
"The water's brown." He said to them,
"From the factory down the way,
and get inside, didn't you hear,
the air's not safe today.

And Jack turned to Jill and said;
"My dear; we should return from whence we came,
for as I see it this old world will never be the same."

Sunday Night

the thing very much that I dislike, is sitting at home on a Sunday night.
my body feels so sick and meek, because tomorrows starts a long, hard week.

it's not that the world gets me down.
it's not that my teachers make me frown.
but there is a reason on this Sunday night,
why my body trembles and aches in fright.

you see, my weekends aren't long enough, and getting home early is really tough.
so the reason I feel like a messed up heap, is beacuse I won't get my 12 hours sleep.

Mike Kanter

Rain

Rain falls on roof tops,
Runs to the edge and gently
Descends to the ground.

Rick Johnston

What is it, can you tell me,
More brilliant than a diamond by far?
A single drop of water
On the windshield of our car,
Catching all the sunlight
In a placed piece of melted frost;
Reflecting it all back in a miniature sun,
Soon to be evaporated and lost.
Shining in my eyes,
A firey prisim of light
Hundreds and thousands of miniature fires
A most inspiring sight.
But now the star if fading
The car is turning from the sun
And the drop is just a drop now
And is blown away and gone.

This is how I view myself
A life with no meaning within
Just many ideas from books on a shelf.

Searching to find myself, like everyone my age,
Trying to find where I am going, not knowing where I've been,
Someday I will know who I am, but until I find that page

A Tree

I see the world from a different view
I can't see it in the same way as you
I'm rooted far into the solid ground.
If I want a change I can't move around.
I remain in one place while the world passes by
I was born where I stand, where I stand I will die
It's a boring life, a lonely one to live
But I am important, and have a lot to give
If it wasn't for me, all life would soon die
Choking slowly, with no oxygen supply
So I'm very humble, yet proud to be a tree
A tall and mighty race are we

Kelvin Quinn

School books are kinda lonely
Teachers scribble in them
Students are always pounding on them
Dogs chew them up. But why?
My words aren't meant to harm you
I'm here to help you, to teach you
And even though a book can't speak,
It says a lot. Yet nobody will listen

Walking In The Snow

It is when I'm tired and bored,
That I feel the need to be alone.
So I walked through a snow-drenched woods
Which takes my mind far from home.
And as I watch the sparkling snow
Things seem so single and plain;
While the trees stand perfectly still,
The whole world seems so tame.

Mike Kanter

Peace

So many seek peace
Yet they know not where to look
It is not hiding
in books
in chemicals
in demonstrations or in paintings
peace lives within you and it is for you to find it for a man at peace with the world is first at peace with himself

HISTORY

Students had their choice.

All social studies students were given the choice of following a traditional or individualized program. Though split by learning processes, everyone was involved in similar large groups and field trips.

Instruction was supplemented by field trips to the City-County Building and to Washington, D.C.

Language

Wayne Phipps, a student at Southwick, won the Panasonic tape recorder raffled by the French Club. The money from the raffle was used to help finance the trip to France during spring vacation. "There's so many things I want to get done in the club, but there just isn't enough time," said Mrs. Diane Ley, club sponsor.

The Oktoberfest, sponsored by the German Club, was a fine opportunity for new German students to get acquainted with the club and some of the members. Everyone at the Oktoberfest was served chicken, or bratwurst, potatos lad, sauerkraut, homemade breat and rootbeer.

Purses, plaques and candles were sold at the Spanish club bazaar during the home basketball games this season. "We made somewhere over $100 at the bazaar," said Pam Walker, president.

The items that were sold were donated by the Spanish club members. The main attraction of the bazaar were the wooden plaques made by Bill Larson. "They sold like hot-cakes," said Bill.

MEDIA

As a warm-up exercise to get used to being in front of the television cameras, Television Productionists, had to prepare and read a 5-8 page speech. From then on, the camera jitters were over.

The Match Game "mock" television show created, staged and produced by the Television Production class, featured guest celebrities Mrs. June Moord, Mr. Tom O'Keefe, Mr. Thomas King, Mr. Edmund Zapp, Miss Kim Rutledge, Mrs. Cindy Dobbins.

Media Now was a course designed to study and work with the media. Students created an ad story board, commercials, and film. Programmed instructional workbooks were used to allow each student to progress through the course at his own pace.

Experiment

The rats invaded the B-100 area again this year. "Ugly, Charlie, Rat, Albino, Ernie," were affectionate titles for these experimentee's. After the rats, Mr. Tex Brooks and the class worked on sensory preceptions and personality experiments.

The sociology department joined forces with the English department by putting on several one-act plays that dramatized some social problem. After the presentation, question-answer sessions followed.

"Mr. Brook's class is really open," said Dan Darrah. He told us at the beginning of class that embarrassing subjects and argumentative stances would be presented, but that we should see the class existing for the purposes of discussion."

Journalism

QUOTE entered several issues in national newspaper contests with hopes of winning in the graphic arts category. Many staff members were awarded the Quill and Scroll pin for outstanding work in journalism.

INDIVIDUALIST staffers spent several days and weeks on the many in-depth features carried in the five issues. Editor Brian Jump and Dave Bouwkamp went to Indianapolis to interview proponents and opponents of the ERA amendment.

TRACES editors Kay Register and Becky Bolds completed layouts and design ideas early last summer while attending the Indiana University High School Journalism Institute.

Chemistry Physics

Tapes, lectures, and re-listening to tapes to get the infomation missed the first time around, were all a part of living with Chemistry and math.

The system change this year did not change the programmed approach to Chemistry. Two-hundred-eight pages of unipacs were used, together with labs and tapes to help the students gather the information needed to pass the unipacs with satisfactory grades.

Labs helped students understand the concept that the unipac tried to get across. Students interested in better grades could complete optional unipacs or advanced labs.

Those in Advanced Chemistry who did not have the advantage of an individual set-up, received more teacher-guidance because the course was more difficult. Lectures instead of tapes were used in the classroom.

Biology

Experimentation played a vital role in this year's biology class. The classes tackled labs dissecting plants and animals. Many students worked at their own pace with faculty-prepared unipac's and labs.

Human Physiology, the study of the process of the human body, involved study of the circulatory and digestive systems.

The aquarium and animal room fascinated many biology and zoology students with creatures such as guppies, rabbits, mice, rats, chinchillas, tarrantulas, and a venus fly-trap.

MATH

MATH: facts, figures and numbers made enjoyable by the sometimes funny "jokes" cracked often by algebra teacher, Mr. Duane Snyder. Those jokes make the hours of erasing over seemingly unsolvable math problems somehow bearable.

When it comes time for students to figure up their own income tax, those lucky enough to have had Mr. Everett Sauders will be a step ahead of the game, since they spend several days practicing making up the forms.

Most of the math students could work at their own pace through the courses since most of the work was contained in unipacs.

Harding's Graphic Arts lab could have given any professional lab stiff competition. The specialized equipment made all kinds of printing jobs possible.

The offset printing press rolled off copies of the school newspaper, QUOTE and the school magazine, INDIVIDUALIST. Journalism staffers were aided in running the press by Doug Klenke and Mrs. June Moord.

Letterpress equipment enabled the Graphic Arts department to make personal stationary. The small roller press ran off name cards for business and graduation.

Although dishwashing was usually drudgery, those taking Foods at least performed the washing duty with a full stomach. During the semester, 20 unipac's on soup, breads, simple suppers and desserts were required. Part of the learning came from not only preparing food but also in serving it elegantly.

Dishes were served to classmates and teachers administrators and even news media representatives, Pete Torrey and Tom Campbell.

Sewing staged a fashion show featuring slack sets and long dresses.

FWRVC opens to Harding

The Fort Wayne Vocational Regional Center offered extra training to some 15 students from Harding this year. Among some of the programs taken by the students were Automotive Operations, Metal Trades, and Data Processing. Some of the programs offered part-time "on-the-job" training stations to the students.

One of the most successful programs taken by Harding students at RVC was Data Processing. Three Senior girls enrolled in this program received training in key punch and computer operations. The girls being trained attended many social events, met many interesting people, and became active members of OEA (Office Education Association). Through the OEA, they visited Indianapolis and Chicago to compete in "office practice" competition.

"Like in a real office"

This year 13 girls in the new Intensive Business Lab learned to work in a business atmosphere. Most of the girls taking the two-hour course intend to pursue a secretarial career. "It's really nice to have our own desks. It makes us feel like real secretaries. We never get bored, because there's always something to do."

The Lab is set up like an office with secretaries, an office manager and a supplies manager. The set-up also includes a person in charge of payroll who gives out simulated checks each week. The girls take dictation, compose their own letters, and do jobs for companies like General Telephone and Mutual Security. If the work is not acceptable, it must be redone—just like in a real office!

Shop Class

Tucked back in the east corner of the school is an orderly array of tools and machines that enables Industrial Arts students to build and repair items brought in by faculty and other students. When the boys finish with the "small stuff" they move into the heavy work of rebuilding engines, rotating engines and repairing the body of a car. Many of the faculty brought their cars into the shop for tune-ups and tire balances.

Although the Industrial Arts area has been traditionally considered no-girls territory, the young ladies at Harding broke the mold and enrolled in some of the "greasier" classes.

the ARTS

As the football players trudged their way through the mud and slop, the band was also going through such gruelling tactics getting ready for their job: entertaining the half-time audiences.

The Choir and Band both received high ratings at contest.

In art, the students made hook rugs, pottery, oil landscapes, clay pots and abstract paintings.

The music area is one of the most fascinating and interesting areas in the school. Taking vocal lessons from Mrs. Sue Nelson, practicing with your vocal or instrumental ensemble to try to get that 1st rating at NISBOVA contest, learning to master a new instrument, trying to work demerits off that Mr. Tom Snider gave out, or just plain observing others were all activities which took up many free mods for PHHS students.

Classes offered this year were "Rudiments of Music" and "Music Theory!"

NISBOVA rates Harding a First

Parades, football games, and marching contest were some of the highlights of the 1974 marching season.

With a year of experience the Marching Band earned a first place rating at NISBOVA State Marching Contest.

During the summer, the band practiced once a week on parade routines that helped them to win first place over New Haven in the New Haven Day's Parade.

August through November were spent working out football and contest routines after school.

This past year, for the first time, freshman were initiated to the band by senior members. A little shaving cream, perfume, whip cream, and hair spray formally welcomed them to the band.

Hawkettes

The Hawkettes performed as "an added attraction" to the Marching Hawks once again this year. The Hawkettes also had their chance to entertain the basketball crowds during halftime.

▲ Kay Register (12), Lois Mansfield (12)

The Hawkettes performed with band for five games and with such shows as Solution to Pollution, Windy City Dialogue, and their contest show including hit songs, Lover, Tattoo, Mama, and Aquarius—Let the Sun Shine In. The pom-pon girls spent everyday after school for over a month rehearsing with the band for NISBOVA Marching Contest. The Hawks and Hawkettes brought home a superior rating. One of the judges' comment's about the Hawkettes was, "classy pom-pon girls!"

The Hawkettes performed at four basketball games entertaining with songs as Ironsides, the Sound of Philadelphia, Pink Panter, their own version of Tattoo, and Franco's Italian Army.

Concert Band

At least one day out of every week during the summer, members of the Concert Band are pounding the pavement, practicing marching skills and giving their instruments some use. The practice payed off as evidenced by the first place awards they earned in the Grabill Parade, and New Haven Days plus the second place awards they won at the Strawberry Festival and at the 4-H Parade.

Four band members were recognized at the end of the year for being outstanding. The Outstanding Freshman Award went to Frank Plettner. Mike Runyan won the Outstanding Sophomore Award. Teresa Ginter took home the Outstanding Junior Award and Steve Iden won the Outstanding Senior Award.

ArtArtArt

"We really get more into art this year than we did last year," said Chezron Neal. "Last year we learned about how to letter neatly, macrame bottles, draw landscapes and paint them."

Advanced Art students have concentrated on sculpture throughout the year. Many drew self-portraits by looking at their reflections in a hand mirror. Another sculpture assignment required students to draw a sculptured figure of a person sitting on an overturned trash can.

A new twist for rug weavers came with an assignment requiring them to interweave macrame into traditional hooked rugs.

Art is quite individualized. Those taking Advanced Art can set their own projects and work at their own pace.

CHOIR

Perhaps the highlight of the year for the music department came with the presentation of their second annual Spring Concert. The theme for the evening was "An Evening in MacArthur Park." The entire evening, including an art show, gave Harding friends and patrons an opportunity to see skills practiced for hours finally put into practice.

"An Evening in MacArthur Park" spotlighted senior talent. Larry Hoeppner joined Paul Peconge in a medley comprised of "Bridge Over Troubled Water," and "You've Got a Friend." Dorothy Kyrou and Dan Cochren sang, "I Choose to Follow You." Dennis Emerick, Margaret Braeking and Steve Iden were featured in "Burgler's Holiday." The finale, "MacArthur Park" featured soloist Mark Porter and interpretive dancer Elaine Mallers. They were accompanied by Kris Engdahl.

E-100 The "Extra" Classes

E100 is the "artsy" area of Paul Harding where skill is developed and put into use. But the "putting-into-use" time most often turns out to be the fun-time. One time 27 students packed themselves into one practice room. Another time a human arm was painted totally in red, just to see the effect. Clay creations produced lots of wild guessing games.

E100 was the birthplace of the Marching Hawks, Hawkettes, Swing Choir, Acapella Choir, Concert Choir and Concert Band.

Mr. Arnie Moser, hidden under paintings and a temporary wall in E100 taught special education classes, the first of its kind at Paul Harding.

Boys P.E.

Flag football, gymnastics, racquetball, badminton, and basketball activities filled the boys schedules in Boys Physical Education this year at Harding. With three gym floors available, many sporting activities were possible.

Sportsmen in Mr. Arnie Ball's class got a chance this year to play the teacher role. Once during the semester, each of the boys made up a set of lesson plans for a class at Southwick Elementary School. In the class, they taught various games.

In the 1974-75 year, Miss Alice Sheak made out a schedule of activities that include Slim and Trim, Judo, gymnastics, and badminton. The girls were to have all of the activities completed in a 3 week interval.

Harding begins new honor society

Dawn Matzat and Joann Stutzman were named recipients of a Paul Harding Scholarship in the amount of $200. The scholarship is awarded each year to a graduate of any East Allen County high school who has need and plans to enter vocational training.

George Doehla won a scholarship to Indiana University; Sondra Nygren won an academic scholarship to Indiana State University; Chom Sun Oh won a basic grant scholarship to Indiana University; Jim Koch won a football scholarship to Butler University and John Mader won an academic scholarship to I.U.

Jeff Brunett was named the recipient of the Sertoma Award in late May. Jeff Monce won a Gold Key Award from L.S. Ayres as did Deb Flue for their art entries in the yearly art show.

Gil Boldt was chosen "Student with Most Scientific Aptitude," by ITT. He was one of 14 students representing the top 5% of their class who received certificates for academic achievement. Others named were: Jeff Brunett, Lisa Conrad, Kristine Engdahl, Gerald Griffin, Susan Guthrie, John Hasch, Steve Iden, John C. Mader, Julie Periguey, Andrea Papiez, Dave Rippe, Sue Sonnek and Patti Sorenson.

Several students at Harding won Hoosier Scholarships: Keith Arnold, Gil Boldt, Jeff Brunett, Lisa Conrad, Mike Day, Beth Ehresmann, Dennis Emerick, Kris Engdahl, Steve Feipel, Sandra Funk, Carol Gotschall, John Hasch, Cynthia Kahlenbeck, Mary Kaplanis, Linda Lanning, John Mader, Lois Mansfield, James Matthews, Dawn Matzat, Tammy Mayle, Becky Mitchell, Joelyn Morris, Sondra Nygren, Andrea Papiez, Julie Perriguey, Steve Raatz, Kay Register, Sheila Rexrode, Dave Rippe, Sue Sonnek, Mark Taylor, Lee Twitchell.

Four juniors have been awarded certificates and pins by the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Kappa Kappa Kappa: Jon Safran, Janet Miller, Dave Linihan, Rick Johnson. These juniors represent the top one percent of their class.

The following students were inducted into the Paul Harding Honor Society:

Lynne Ault, Gilbert Boldt, Catherine Bonahoom, Jeff Brunett, Lisa Conrad, Gail Doctor, Sue Duffy, Becky Ehresmann, Dennis Emerick, Kristin Engdahl, Lori Everson, Sue Foltz, Alanna Fox, Sandra Funk, Gary Ginter, Lori Glendening, Carol Gotschall, Gerald Griffin, Susan Guthrie, Howard Hamilton, John Hasch, Julia Hendricks, Laura Hunsaker, Steve Iden, Cynthia Kahlenbeck, Mary Kaplanis, James Kearns, Kathy Klemm, Joyce Kohlmeier, Linda Lanning, John Mader, Lois Mansfield, Dawn Matzat, Tamara Mayle, Cindy McCracken, JoElyn Morris, Sondra Nygren, Dianna Odneal, Andrea Papiez, Julie Perriguey, Mark Porter, Stephen Raatz, Angela Register, Sheila Rexrode, David Rippe, Becky Sadler, Sue Sonnek, Patti Sorensen, Mary Spencer, Mark Taylor, Kathy Thomas, Lee Twitchell, Theresa Votaw, and Pamela Walker, Barbara Aschliman, Barbara Backus, Julia Becker, Dale Bienz, Ron Blauvelt, Linda Bracht, Joyce Dillon, Diane Divis, Cheryl Doenges, Christine Douglass, Dan Figgins, John Fritz, Lori Fritze, Teresa Ginter, John Gross, Kim Heitkamp, Peggy Hernicz, Ruth Hesse, Dianne Hillyard, Lori Hinrichs, Rhonda Huntine, Rick Johnston, Michael Kanter, Steve Koeneman, Mark Lazzer, David Linehan, Renita Longardner, Tim Meredith, Janet Miller, Keith Miller, Lynn Miller, Michele Miller, Nancy Nave, Chom Son Oh, Thomas O'Keefe, Elizabeth Parrish, Robert Pauley, Carrie Pritchard, Kelvin Quinn, William Reichhart, Cheryl Ritchie, Jonathan Safran, Dennis Schisler, Susan Schoot, Thomas Schwartz, Deb Silvey, Angela Smith, Priscilla Snowdon, Elizabeth Spencer, Steven Sprunger, Craig Steiner, Brian Stevens, Terri Tevis, Julie Thieme, Kimberly Wacasey and Bernita Wilson.

Hawks Open to Competition

In just its second year of I.H.S.A.A. competition Harding's overall sports program took almost an about face in terms of its first year.

The Hawks football team established itself as one of the most respected teams in the area, compiling a 7-3 record.

Cross Country ended the season with a 23-4 record. The Tennis team advanced to the semi-finals of the Tennis Sectional. Harding's wrestling team was the top team in Ft. Wayne. The basketball team finished with a 7-13 record. They went into the Sectional Tournament and advanced to the finals of Ft. Wayne Sectional LL where they were beaten 63-58 by South Side Archers.

Trackmen came in second in the North Side Relays and SAC meet. George Doehla set a discus record of 176'9½".

Cross Country

Paul Hardings cross country team had quite an impressive season in 1974. At the end of the regular season, the Hawks had 23 wins to their credit, and only 4 losses. Harding placed 3rd in the Summit Athletic Conference Standings and was represented in the Sectional, Regional, and State meets.

In the I.H.S.A.A. Sectional, the Hawks clenched 4th place out of 21 teams. Senior Brad Jacobson captured the individual championship. Steve Frazier ended in a respective 6th place. Harding came in 10th in the Regionals with Brad Jacobson finishing 4th in the race. That gave him the right to travel to Indianapolis for the State Meet. Brad finished 11th in the State meet.

Brad Jacobson was chosen as both team captain and "Most Valuable Runner." "Most Valuable Freshman Runner" honor went to Brad Stevens. Those runners receiving letters were Jeff Brunett, Brad Jacobson, Jeff Monce, Steve Frazier, Tom Meadows, Rich Marr, Dave Arnold, and Brad Stevens.

Tennis: On The Court

The tennis team at Harding this year was a lot more successful than last year. After last year's 1-10 season, the experienced Hawks bounced back with a 707 showing, which very easily could have swayed in the favor of the Hawks. Of those 7 losses, Coach Max Eichenauer's team came about as close as you can get with 4 of them being decided by a score of 4-3.

"Overall, I was pleased" said Coach Eichenauer. "We had a very good draw in the Tennis Sectional and played real well against DeKalb and Luers."

In that Tennis Sectional, Harding advanced to the semi-finals where they met the Bruins of Northrop and were defeated 4-1.

Gary Holsapple took the "Most Valuable Player" honors while Steve Koeneman was noted as captain of the tennis team for 1974.

The Becker Barrel A Victory

The Varsity football team at Harding won its last seven games and finished the 1974 season with a respectable 7-3 record.

One of Harding's seven straight victories was over New Haven. The Hawks downed the Bulldogs 27-14 and gained possession of the Coach Becker Trophy.

A number of awards were given out to the players for outstanding performances turned in during the season. George Doehla was named the "Most Valuable Player" for the second straight year. Doehla was also named outstanding defensive end. He scored 50 points during the season and finished third in the SAC.

Dick Miller was the outstanding defensive back while Dave Parker was the outstanding offensive back. Parker gained 627 yards and averaged 5.7 yards per carry. He also scored 44 points which was good for fourth place in the SAC. Paul Thornton was named outstanding defensive linebacker. Thornton led the team with 159 defensive points. Tackles and assists make up defensive points. Jim Koch was the outstanding offensive lineman for the season.

Paul Thornton, Jim Koch, and Jim McMillen were the co-captains for the team. Harding placed three players on the South Division Summit Athletic Conference all-star football squad: Paul Thornton, George Doehla, Jim Koch. Koch also made the all-conference squad which is quite an honor. Doehla made the Associated Press third team for all-state defensive end.

Rex Clifton was second in rushing for Harding with 570 yards. He missed part of two games because of injuries. Clifton also averaged 5.7 yards per carry.

Basketball

The basketball team here at Harding really raised some eyebrows in the Ft. Wayne area when Sectional time rolled around. Coming off a somewhat disappointing 7-13 regular season record, the Hawks went into Ft. Wayne Sectional II and pulled off what was considered a big upset to area sportswriters and fans. But to Coach Harlan Frick and his team, beating Bishop Luers was merely a big win.

"Beating Luers was the biggest win of the season," said Coach Harlan Frick. "We felt that no team can beat another team three times in one season. For us the third time was a charm."

Bishop Luers, who fell to the Hawks by the score of 64-58, wasn't the only victim of Harding's Sectional tear. The Knight's sister school, Bishop Dwenger, was also beaten by the Hawks 60-48. That victory gave Paul Harding High School the right to play in the championship game of Sectional II.

South Side was Harding's opponent in that game. Unfortunately the Hawks were not at full strength. Senior center George Doehla injured his ankle in practice prior to the Dwenger game and was not able to play at his normal capacity. Sophomore Greg Howard exploded for 26 points but that was not enough to hold off an experienced Archer team. South Side took the Sectional II crown with a 63-58 score. That ended the 1974-75 season at 9-14.

Harding's talented sophomore Greg Howard was named to the All-Sectional II team by both the Journal-Gazette and News-Sentinel. Also listed to the Journal-Gazette's squad was Marlon Mitchell. Scott Hartzell and George Doehla received second team honors from the News-Sentinel.

The Sectional tourney was not the only tourney Harding placed second in. In the Harding Holiday tournament the Hawks trailed behind Bishop Luers who won the championship game 81-71.

George Doehla was named to the All-SAC basketball squad. Greg Howard received honorable mention for the SAC team.

Greg Howard was the team's leading scorer averaging 17.0 points a game and collecting 392 points on the season. Howard also had the best field goal percentage as he shot at a .518 mark. The assist leader was honorary captain Jeff Brunett. He had 98 for the season. Scott Hartzell led the team in free throws hitting 25 of 33 for a .757 percentage. George Doehla led the team in rebounds as he pulled down 215 boards over the season.

Freshmen Basketball

The freshman team at Harding finished their basketball season with a 9-7 record. The young Hawks had somewhat of an up and down season.

"We didn't really put it all together" commented Mr. Tom King, coach of the team. "At the beginning of the season and end of the season we played real well. In the middle we played more individual and not team ball. About the time these guys are juniors, they should be a real good ball club."

The team was led by Tim Koehl in the scoring department. Mike Pate teamed up with Tim at the guard position and was the floor leader of the team.

Rebounding was also a big part of the freshman team's game. Along the front line the Hawks were bigger than most freshman teams since Steve Tholen, Lee Springer, and Jeff Boger all stand above 6 feet.

Wrestling

The Harding varsity wrestlers ended the 1974-75 season with a fantastic 11-1 record.

The Harding grapplers finished undefeated in Summit Athletic Conference Competition and had the best overall record in the conference.

Coach Jim Dupont was asked if he thought the season would be so successful. "Not at all, I predicted 8-4 at the start, but I had some guys that really came along."

The Hawks set a school record of eight pins in one match against Norwell. Dave Bouwkamp broke the record for the quickest pin by pinning his South Side opponent in only 24 seconds.

A number of the wrestlers compiled impressive records for the season. Jeff Grier had the best overall record at 18-2. John Boyer was 14-3 and led the team with 11 pins. Boyer also had the most take downs. Dave Hart finished the season 12-5 and Steve Feipel finished 14-4. Jim McMillen had a 10-5-1 record and led the team in near falls and reversals.

The Hawks participated in the Bellmont Wrestling Tournament and finished third. Harding also finished third in the Bellmont Sectional. Jeff Grier won the Sectional and was runner-up in the Regional. Jim McMillen finished third in the Regional.

The reserve grapplers finished the season with a 7-4-1 record. The reserves were coached by Tex Brooks. The team participated in the SAC Reserve Take-down Tournament at Elmhurst. Jim Geise placed first and Fred Furman and Jay Hoover finished second in the tournament. The team also participated in the SAC Reserve Tourney. Bruce Gallespie finished first and Bill Derbyshire finished second.

Three of the reserve grapplers ended the season with only defeat. They were Bruce Gallespie 7-1, Jim Geise 6-1, and Fred Furman, 5-1.

It had been said that hard work pays off in big dividends. Coach Dupont and the wrestlers sure proved that with an outstanding season.

GOLF

The golf team here at Harding had a bit of a disappointing season as they won only a third of their matches.

"The thing that hurt us was that in the SAC matches there was no reserve match, so sometimes I had the wrong guys playing and the other five didn't really get a chance to prove themselves." said Duane Snyder, golf coach.

The 1976 season does look a bit brighter though. "Out of our 6 top men, 3 of them will be back." commented Coach Snyder. "Our number 1 and number 2 golfers are juniors, so next year should be much better than this past year."

For the first time, high school hockey was a part of the Ft. Wayne sports scene. It was all started early in April when teams were organized at Harding and at Bishop Dwenger. Harding made history in playing in the first high school hockey game in this area of the state. After losing that first game, Harding went on to post a 4-win 8-loss record. In the new high school league at the Gunnar Elliot Ice arena, their record was 4-wins and 6-losses, fifth in the ten team league.

For Harding this year, Senior Steve Soest was the leader in team scoring with 11 goals and 4 assists. Sophomore Ken Gillian was second and senior Jim Koch was third. Mark Lazzer was the leading goaltender as he shared goal-tending duties with Greg McClain and Tom Michael.

The Hawks were coached this year by Mr. Ed. Zapp and Jason Liechty. Their help was donated and was much appreciated.

Here at Harding, as well as other schools, Hockey was not a Varsity sport. It was a club program and the players paid for the arena ice time themselves. Many rivalrys were continued from the other sports as the games with Bishop Luers and New Haven showed it.

The League champion for hockey was Northrup followed closely by Bishop Dwenger.

All in all, the first year of high school hockey was successful and the Harding players were proud to have participated in the first game.

TRACK

Track was the best sport at Harding this year. The Hawks were ranked high in the state all season long. They came in second in both the North Side Relays and the SAC meet, both times behind Snider. George Doehla was one of the state's best shot putters and set an all-time Indiana discus record with a distance of 176'9½". Brad Jacobson was one of the top milers around as was Steve Frazier in the two-mile. Larry Knox did well in the sprints. Truly Harding was one of the top track teams in Indiana and was a contender for state championship.

Girls Sports...

Harding girl's sports are becoming out in the open also. Harding girls had a wide variety of sports from which to choose from this year. Gymnastics, tennis, volleyball, track, and basketball opened the Hawks to competition. And they proved to be competition! Mrs. Linda Sipe, Mrs. Carol Villavicencio, and Miss Alice Sheak, served as coaches for this year's girl's sports.

Chris Wyss, Lori Glendening, Chris Douglass, and Mendi Beatty, proved to be outstanding girl athletes for Harding. Lori received all first place ratings for her performances as a gymnast. Chris Wyss advanced to state competition in gymnastics. Chris Douglass brought a number of ribbons for wins in track. Mendi helped the Hawks volleyball team to come out of the season with many wins.

Thanks Harding girl athletes for opening Harding up to competition.

Basketball Volleyball

Volleyball ended it's second year with nine letter winners and a 3rd place in Sectionals.

"We have many outstanding girls leaving this year," commented Miss Alice Sheak. "Such girls were co-captains Mendi Beatty, Lori Glendening, and Mary Spencer."

Overtimes marked exciting games. Dekalb pulled off a close 15-13 game. Harding went into overtime twice with Bishop Luers. Luers was victorious both times.

Basketball's first team turned out many letters for the girls but not many victories.

"We're starting with an almost all freshman team," explained Miss Sheak. "Most of the girls played against upperclassmen."

The girls did win one, against Elmhurst 46-35. The high scorer was Linda Hege, with most rebounds going to Cheryl Nimzt.

"Lori Glendening and Chris Wyss have advanced and achieved the most this year," commented Mrs. Linda Sipe, gymnastics coach.

Lori won all first places during regular season. Chris received all first places and was honored by advancing to state competition.

The 1974-75 gymnastics team drew a lot of freshmen to its ranks. Talent seemed to run in the freshman class.

Track Tennis

Linda Myers was awarded the title of "Most Dedicated Player" by the girls tennis coach, Mrs. Carol Villavicencio. "Tennis comes naturally for Linda," said Mrs. Villavicencio. "She has good coordination and she is a strong player."

Most of the girls said that good tennis players had the same traits in common: guts, determination, and a dedication to practice. The Harding team worked on developing these traits all summer. "On the average, the team was good. It was just that all the other teams we played were a little bit better," said Mrs. Villavicencio.

Harding's second year marked the beginning of several new clubs and activities. After the homework was done, everyone piled into cars and headed for the senior class hayride, faculty-WOWO basketball game, New Haven parade, South Pacific and Spring Carnival. Somehow during the year the dull moments were filled.

"South Pacific" and "Godspell" kept cast members busy for several weeks because they were asked by local establishments to give extra performances.

With the Carnival and All-County dance students had many chances to do the "Bump" and "Boogie."

November 1 proved to be a very successful opening night for South Pacific cast members. Libby Ward played the leading role of Nellie Forbush. Dave Kissell, student teacher in the Music Department, played the leading male role.

The play, "South Pacific" gave the Harding players a chance to show all of their talents—acting, singing, and dancing.

Mrs. Louise Jones and Mrs. Sue Nelson once again to produce this dynamic musical. Mrs. Mary Kay Perkins served as a choreographer. Chuck Knox, senior, was technical director. Mr. Tom Snider directed the pit orchestra.

The play closed with tears . . . as well as success.

CARNIVAL TIME!! Hours before the Carnival was to begin, the entire journalism staff was enjoying a carry-in supper complete with home-made chili, bread, cookies, pie, cake and diet Dr. Pepper. The staff knew it would be a long night, so they filled up on energy.

This year, the Carnival attracted 25 booths. Some booths, like the haunted house, water-toss, apple-dunking and taco booth drew hundreds of students and several teachers. Pam Walker, head mistress at the taco booth, sold 150 taco's and was still going strong when the booths shut down at 9:30 p.m.

"Whispers" entertained a crowd of 400 persons who drifted into the cafeteria from the halls. Bumping, the boogie, twist, hop and all sorts of old-fashioned dances from the '50's and '60's were revived during the evening.

Profits from the Carnival were used to send QUOTE, TRACES, INDIVIDUALIST editors to summer journalism institutes at Indiana University and Ball State University.

GODSPELL meant love, friendship, acting, fellowship, fun, entertainment and joy to the 12 cast members. Beginning with sensitivity training sessions in early spring, the cast learned to work together as a unit, expressing the story of Jesus Christ set to music. Rehearsals were long. Mr. Bruce Turner, Choreographer, Mrs. Louise Jones, Mr. Bob Waters, and Mr. Tom Snider spent hours with the cast perfecting routines, voice qualities and dramatic expressions. The play received such terrific reviews from the students, that the cast was asked to perform at area churches and city facilities.

▼ Quill and Scroll 1975 induction

Each year, students on the publications staff who have done outstanding work, are in the upper third of their class, and who have been recommended by their adviser are elected into Quill and Scroll, national honorary society for high school journalists. This year's inductee's included Brian Stier, Beth Franke, Dan Darrah, Tom Guevara, Tom O'Keefe, Penni Walker. Each received an official pin at the journalism banquet.

The Gretchen A. Kemp Outstanding Service Award in Journalism is given to the student(s) who has given willingly of their time, effort, and enthusiasm to any and all projects attempted by the journalism staffs. The award is named after a professor of journalism at Indiana University who has been awarded countless honors for her dedication and service to high school journalism. The 1975 winners of this honor were Sharon Duffy, editor of Quote, and Brian Jump, editor of the Individualist.

Several journalists were awarded scholarships to summer journalism institutes at Indiana University and Ball State University at the publications banquet: Penni Walker, Beth Franke, Tom Guevara, received scholarships to Indiana University. Brian Stier and Sharon Duffy received scholarships to Ball State.

As the 1974-75 school year comes to a close, I realize what high school means—friends, activities, organizations, classes and memories for the future. This second big year for Paul Harding has brought us a mood of "Open to Change." In "Traces" Becky and I have tried to capture these meanings.

Two years ago "Traces" didn't mean a thing to me. It's hard to believe that Becky and I have edited the first two editions. I would like to thank Miss Mary Marsh, the Walker family, and our staff for all the beautiful help you've given us. Most of all, I'd like to thank all of the wonderful Hawks for making "Traces" all worthwhile. You've also been a beautiful help!

Kay Register.

▲ Becky Bolds, Miss Mary Marsh.

Well it's all over. All the deadlines, all the waiting, all the arguments, and all the fun.

I met a lot of really nice people here at Harding, and it was through my work in publications. Living in the journalism room, never opening my locker (I didn't even know the number) making friends with everyone made the yearbook go easy.

I never would have picked up a pencil and started writing if not for the yearbook. I found I had a hidden want to write poems. It gave me an outlet for my emotions that I will use till I die.

Working on the yearbook made me learn to be responsible, more outgoing and decisive about everything.

Thanks can never be said enough, especially to these people. To thank everyone it would take at least two mods. (Two mods? Harding what have you done to me!) Miss Marsh, thank you for allowing me to work at editing the yearbook; Kay, thank you for greatly co-editing with me for two years; Mrs. Moord and the yearbook and publications staff, thank you! Again thank you a thousand times over Mr. and Mrs. Walker. (I hope we didn't press you too much).

Sitting here in the quiet of Harding lifeless I feel like everything ends at this part in my life and everything begins,

I hate ending remarks,

Becky Bolds.
